Time without Task

Description: This report is similar to the standard Time & Expense Listing report except that it only shows entries that meet the following criteria:
- Project selected
- No task selected

Note: This report is helpful if you require your Staff to select a Task in addition to entering Projects. You must be using Project Management to benefit from this report.